

Berlin Central School Wall of Distinction

SELECTION

Eligibility

Any graduate is eligible for inclusion in the Wall of Distinction. It is anticipated that awards may be given posthumously.

Criteria

As stated in the Purpose, selectees should have truly distinguished themselves in their chosen careers and/or significantly and positively impacted the lives of others.

Perhaps, the most useful criterion would be that an objective party, upon hearing the resume of a Wall of Distinction selectee, would agree without qualification that the person merits selection.

Guidelines

- 1) The Wall of Distinction will be administered by a committee of two students, two teachers and two administrators.
- 2) Because the Wall of Distinction will be highly selective, each selectee should meet extremely high standards of achievement and accomplishment.
- 3) It is expected that Wall of Distinction selectees will run the gamut from individuals who have achieved on the international scene to those who have focused on bettering a neighborhood.
- 4) Each year no more than 3 graduates will be selected.
- 5) It is expected that, as the number of members grows, the Wall of Distinction will reflect the diversity of backgrounds, professions and achievements of the full body of Berlin Central graduates.

Berlin Central School Wall of Distinction

To insure that selection to the Berlin Wall of Distinction is viewed as a highly prestigious and coveted honor,

- there will be a limited number of inductees each year,
